LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

LAST CHANCE.—To-day is the last day that the registry books will be open. They close at 6 o'clock this evening. If you have neglected this important matter, go down to Judge Fuller's office to-day and have your name enrolled. This is a positive duty on the part of every voter. We want to see every man in this county vote two weeks from next Tuesday. Great issues are before the people. You, out here in Nevada, have as much to say about the government of this country as one hundred and three men in the State of New York. For this we tax-payers. Register and on election day vote for the best men.

UNEXHAUSTIBLE as the Pacific Ocean are the dietetic resources of the Pioche small boy. When all other resources fail and he has to forego the red apple or juicy grape, he will munch the raw and chokey turnip or the red and fragrant carrot.

FEMALE Shoshones once more float graceful as a moonlight dream through Pioche's streets. They tell not, neither do they spin; yet I tell thee that Solomon, nor any other man, was ever arrayed as one of these.

ARRIVED.—W. W. Bishop and J. C. Foster arrived on yesterday's Salt Lake stage from Beaver, Utah, where they have been on legal business for the last few weeks. Mr. Bishop was accompanied by his wife.

YESTERDAY the sun shone out bright and warm; the first time for a week. Toward evening the air grew frosty and clothing men displayed their choicest overcoats.

It is funny to stand on Main street and see the shapes and styles of hats that the past few days have called out. They were called in last Spring, but are perennial.

The festive watermelon has disappeared from the restaurants and the succulent pumpkin pie replaces it in the estimation and stomachs of the boarders.

And now when you go down the street you are sure to meet the man that asks you if you have laid in your winter supply of potatoes yet.

The thermometer and stock list are working together these times. Now they go and now they go down.

How that poor grapevine telegraph was loaded down with dispatches yesterday.

WEDDED SINGLENESS.

How many wives sit alone to-night,
By the fireside lonely and gray
Weaving dreams of a possible future
By giving her fancy full play.

Not a sound breaks the weary stillness
That attends her long lonely hours.
For the children are sleeping as sweetly
As the sleep of the dew-laden flowers.

PACIFIC COAST.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—Captain Foster, of the British ship Rydal Hall, lost Tuesday night near San Francisco, states that the ship was 1,800 tons burden, with a crew of thirty-three all told. It belonged to the San Shipping Company of Liverpool and is a first-class iron ship, four months out from Cardiff, with coal. On Monday they were several miles from Farallone by observation; Tuesday the weather was thick; however, and all hands remained on deck during the night until she struck, about 8 p. m. The bottom was crushed and she rapidly filled. Four seamen—Charles Wilson, Geo. Gerger, Geo. White and Geo. Johns—attempted to launch the gig without orders and the boat was swamped and all lost, the sea making a clean breach over the ship. In lowering away the life-boat Hugh William, second officer; William Wilson, steward; Keth Silwyn, an apprentice, Alexander Barlow, William Baker and James Gowz, seamen, were drowned. I did not attempt to get out any more boats, but stopped on board until morning, when the crew were taken off by whalers with great difficulty, owing to the heavy surf. The Captain remained on board until 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and the ship was then fast becoming a total wreck, full of water and her decks breaking up. Nothing was saved, not even the ship's papers. The Captain attributes the disaster to currents, whose strength was not properly estimated. The ship was valued at twenty-six thousand pounds and the cargo at four thousand pounds; insured.

Bates and Sistopie were interchanging sentiments yesterday in relation to the impending European War. Sistopie said it would be a big thing for us. "Yes," broke in Bates, "cuss 'em, they put up a job; over there last summer to bring silver down, now its going up; and so will lead, and I've got a claim out here a little ways, just chock full of base ore," and then he showed Sistopie the test assay, and walked off whistling "The Sweet Bye and Bye."

FRED HOSKING breathed his last yesterday morning. Poor Fred, we knew him well, and for a kind hearted, good natured man. He had been sick for some time of consumption, a disease that knows no cure. He was a native of Cornwall, England, aged 45 years. He will be buried from the Episcopal Church at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

THE dancing season was pleasantly inaugurated at Brown's Hall last evening by the Young Men's Social Club. The grand march was played at ten o'clock, and from that till morning the dancers kept merry time to the music. The hall, at the time of our visit, was well-filled, and everyone was enjoying themselves.

Some misunderstanding existing in relation to Rev. R. H. Kline's intentions as to remaining in Pioche, we are authorized to say that that gentleman has no present intentions of leaving. Divine service will be held on Sunday as usual.

One who claims to know says that an association is about to be started called "The Exaggeration Club; or, the Association of Whiffl Falsifiers." Phoebe, what a name.

JUVENILE SOLILOQUY. "I wonder what makes mother say she's not at home when Sammy Sistopie's mother calls, and sends me to bed without any supper if I tell a lie."

THE Hamilton buck-stage arrived at 9 a. m. and departed at 12 m. yesterday. Hard to make connection at present.

THERE were 635 names on the register last night. There will be, in our opinion, about 750 votes cast in this county on the 7th prox.

THERE will be a ball at the Meadow Valley Hotel, Bullionville, to-night. Dancing will be free. A good time may be expected.

LURID gleams of lightning lit up the eastern horizon at an early hour this morning.

THIS is the 293d day of the leap year. Ladies, you only have 73 more days to leap in.

Mrs. BLANK sent her little boy to the fire last evening to dry a damp towel. "Mamma, is it done when it is brown?"

CAMPAIGN FRUITS.—Candi-dates, current rumors and banner-raising.

BY TELEGRAPH!

SPECIAL TO THE POCHE DAILY RECORD BY WESTERN UNION LINE.

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

New York, Oct. 19.—The Tribune's Washington special says: The Senatorial statement as to the concentration of 10,000 troops from the Department of the Atlantic at Columbia, S. C., are made in nearly all the Democratic papers. They are not tenable. General Sherman said to-night that such stories are miserably false, as there are less than five thousand troops in the whole Department of the Atlantic, which are available for any purpose whatever.

The soldiers at the re-union of the Army of the Tennessee, are very much excited at the Southern situation. There is a great deal of belligerent talk among them, and some of their foremost men say with earnestness that if they should ever take the field again they will follow Sumner's plan and destroy State lines.

The Republicans and Independent Democrats, the latter under General Slocum, made a successful union in the Kings county, Brooklyn nominations. This is accounted as favorable to the Republican ticket.

In New York the number of registrations was about 117,000 in two days. Jersey City's registration for the first day is greater than any vote ever polled there. Colonization is expected.

The World's Washington special says: It is announced in Washington to-night on the authority of the Foreign Legation that the Duke De Cazas has resigned the portfolio of Foreign Affairs of the French Cabinet in favor of Count De Chambray, recently French Ambassador at Madrid. The change is thought to indicate an indisposition on the part of the French to take any active part in the settlement of the Eastern question. Cox was re-nominated to Congress from the Sixth Congressional District, and B. A. Wells from the 11th District yesterday. Elijah Ward was nominated from the Tenth.

FOREIGN NEWS.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—Russia has issued a circular note announcing that in the interests of humanity she feels bound to march her troops into Bulgaria and Armenia. There are 82,000 men at the camp of Bender, and 64,000 around Tiflis.

Late on Tuesday morning a summons was issued for a Cabinet Council to be held to-day. Several Ministers arrived last night.

It is rumored that the Government intends calling an Autumnal session of Parliament in consequence of the grave aspect of the Eastern question. It is also stated that the Government has applied to the Lords to have ships ready to transport troops.

The Times in a leader says: It is stated that orders have been given by the War Office to the Commander-in-Chief to hold three army corps in readiness for immediate dispatch to the Mediterranean; also that a plan for the defense of Constantinople, prepared by the Board of Royal Engineers, has been forwarded to the Admiral commanding the British fleet in Bosnia Bay.

Germany proposes to submit to the next Parliament the propriety of largely increasing her silver coinage, on the ground that the present amount in circulation is insufficient.

A HUNDRED YEARS TO DECIDE A BET.—By private letter from Germany, the following facts regarding a singular and novel wager are communicated: Two wealthy and influential Berlin bankers, desiring to provide for their children's heirs, and fearing that through disastrous reverses they might become poor, and therefore be unable to do so have made a wager concerning the United States. The one bet 3,000 marks (a mark is equal to about 25 cents of our money) that the United States will not remain a republic, but advance to higher knowledge of the arts and sciences, while the other, of course, bets 4,000 marks that our country will remain a Republic all the time intervening between this and the second Centennial, but will retain the high position in the arts and sciences which she now occupies. This sum of 7,000 marks (about $1,750 American money) has been placed on interest for the period of 100 years, at the expiration of which period the royal court of Germany will decide which party is winner entitled to the money, the total sum of which will then be $13,328 American currency. Explicit agreements and stipulations have been entered into by both parties in due form of law, one of which provides that under no circumstances shall the money, or any part thereof, be withdrawn before the expiration of the allotted period of 100 years.

SALARIES OF PASTORS IN BROOKLYN.—The new fashion in Brooklyn is said to be to call a pastor at a nominally very high salary, with a private understanding that he is to pay part of it back. "What is gained by this?" Even so. One distinguished five thousand dollar pastor commenced by "donating" to his church one thousand dollars of his salary and followed it up by "donating" two thousand dollars more. Another, whose nominal salary is $6,000, really gets $3,500. In another case, the pastor who was to get $5,000, generously donated the whole of it to the church, the treasury being so straitened in its circumstances as to be unable to pay him so much as one cent.—[New York Congregationalist.

A New Yorker converted one hundred thousand dollars' worth of property into bonds and gave them to his wife to escape his creditors. That man now has neither wife nor bonds. But another man has both.

A Vermont man returned home the other day after an absence of eleven years, and found that neither of the three husbands his wife had married and buried had fixed the gate.

"But that juryman is deaf," expostulated a man at the opening of a case in the Criminal Court. "Oh, that's all right," whispered a bailiff in reply, "the Sheriff's told him on a piece of paper what kind of a verdict is wanted."

From Rev. Sylvanus Cobb, of Boston, formerly Editor of the "Christian Freeman."

DEAR SIR:—It may be some satisfaction to you to be informed of the result of the trial of the Peruvian Syrup in my family. My daughter was brought low by typhoid fever last Spring, and after the fever left her she continued very weak, and the simplest food distressed her. For months she remained in the same debilitated condition; but from the first of September last, when she commenced taking the Syrup, the digestive functions improved, and she steadily gained strength and vivacity; and now, after taking two bottles, she is restored to a good state of health; indeed, she appears more really healthy than she has for several years past. I am of opinion that the "Protoxide of Iron" contained in the Peruvian Syrup, was adapted to her case, and effected what no other known medicine could have effected.

Yours truly, S. Cobb, 018-1m

"A DROWNING MAN WILL CATCH AT A STRAW."—If he catch it, it will do him no good. Thousands of people, who have neglected colds and coughs until they have become dangerous, will rush to almost every nostrum for relief. This is why so many experiments are tried by the sufferers. Go to your druggist, buy a bottle of WINTER'S BALM OF WILD CHERRY, and use it with confidence. It will benefit at once and ultimately cure. It is no straw; hold on to it and be saved. Sold by all druggists. 018-1m
